Would you like to be part of active coalitions within WNPJ on peace, anti-militarism, environment, sustainability, immigrant rights, outreach, anti-racism and/or other issues? Please let us know which one(s):

The Wisconsin Network for Peace and Justice is an active and diverse nonpartisan network of hundreds of individuals and over 160 organizations around the state with a shared goal of creating a sustainable world, free from violence and injustice. Our member groups address a range of issues, creating positive social change.

These times are full of challenges and opportunities. As a network, we work collaboratively on our priority issues, building alliances with those most affected. For twenty-one years, we have made a difference.

We are looking to expand our membership because we believe it is time to raise the voice of peace, justice and sustainability. From peace building to protecting public health, from growing local food to moving towards energy independence, from fostering international ties to protecting rights at home, our member groups are doing it.

We welcome you to bring your passion and expertise to WNPJ. Become a member and add your voice to the call for peace and justice. Take advantage of the resources that come with being a WNPJ member, such as submitting events or action alerts or job opportunities - and seeing others' postings; building coalitions and addressing key issues through our work groups; and meeting with and learning from others at our WNPJ gatherings.

There are decades of experience and collective wisdom within WNPJ, alongside young, creative and energetic members. Let's make our collaborative effort count!

If you have questions, please feel free to contact us, at (608) 250-9240 or diane@wnpj.org. We look forward to co-creating the world we envision.
